

CALL FOR PAPERS

The emergence and activity of the EurAsian Journal of Leadership publication is driven by Kazakhstan's continued commitment to developing education and research. Almaty Management University (AlmaU) aims to contribute to Kazakhstani research through developing a high-quality periodical Journal dedicated to the themes of management and leadership.

Academic areas considered for the Journal:

- ❖ strategic management
- ❖ finance
- ❖ economics
- ❖ engineering management
- ❖ marketing
- ❖ tourism and hospitality
- ❖ human resources
- ❖ entrepreneurship and leadership
- ❖ and other management areas
- ❖ political science
- ❖ law
- ❖ international relations
- ❖ sociology
- ❖ education
- ❖ and other social sciences

The publication languages are English and Russian.

The themes for the inaugural issue are open.

The deadline for the submission of papers is March 2th, 2020.

The author will receive preliminary feedback 14 days after submission of paper, with the allowable time for review up to 30 days (but no later than March, 13th 2020).

All papers will go through an anti-plagiarism check as well a double-blind review process from the members of the Editorial board (Kazakhstani and international experts).

The format of the journal publication will be online and open-access.

Please email your submission to research@almau.edu.kz and include a short biography of author(s) and abstracts in Russian and English. Technical requirements: 12 font Times New Roman, 1.5 spacing, 3,000-6,000 words (excluding the bibliography), APA referencing style.

Kind regards,

Research and Development Department
Almaty Management University